

Southbound

Lyrics/ Music Bärenz/ Strodtbeck)

I'm southbound, sunny skies are calling
I'll leave the cold behind
I'm heading for the deep blue sea
To wash away all the sores on my soul wanna dig my feet in the burning sand and finally free my mind.

Ref:

With the wind in my back
And sunbeams tickling in my face
I'm heading south, Yes, I'm heading south

I'm southbound, driven by a dream
Of laughing people in the sun
Longing for star-bright southern nights
That will soothe this pounding pain
And a warm gentle breeze caressing my skin
Melts the icy desert in my heart

Ref:

With the wind in my back
And sunbeams tickling in my face
I'm heading south, Yes, I'm heading south

I'm southbound, feel like going home,
After being away much too long
Return to places and people
That give me love and security
And this restless soul will finally settle down
Yes, I'm southbound, going home

Ref:

With the wind in my back
And sunbeams tickling in my face
I'm heading south,
Yes, I'm heading south
With the wind in my back
And sunbeams tickling in my face
I'm heading south,
I'm coming home
